

NOVEMBER WRITING

calendar * task cards * paperless options

MADE BY: SADDLE UP FOR 2ND GRADE ©2017

CALENDAR PAGE >>> >>> >>> >>> >>> >>>

My students keep a writer's notebook in a three ring binder. Students can use this page to keep track of what writing prompts they have already completed. Once they have written about a topic, have them color in the object in that square.

- ## IDEAS FOR USE:
- writing center
 - early finisher work
 - morning work
 - homework

NOVEMBER WRITING PROMPTS

color in the turkey after you've written about that topic.

Tell about something you enjoy about the month of November.	Make a list of things that you are thankful for.	Tell about the last time you did something kind for someone.	Write 5 questions you would like to ask the Pilgrims.	Tell some ways we can help someone.	Write about what you would do if you found a wallet full of money.	Design your own tee pee. What would it look like? How did you build it?
Write directions on how to set the table up for dinner.	Pretend you were a Pilgrim. Write about it.	If you could be any animal, what would you be and why?	Write a story about a magical arrowhead. What would happen when you touched it?	Write 5 questions you would like to ask the Native Americans.	What is your favorite sport? Why?	Tell about something you never thought you would learn how to do.
Create a menu for Thanksgiving dinner.	Use your 5 senses to write about Thanksgiving dinner. (I see, I smell, I feel, I hear, I taste)	Do you watch football on Thanksgiving Day? Yes or No?	Tell about a favorite relative who does not live with you.	Write about something you are thankful for.	How can you show that you are thankful for something?	What is your least favorite food? Draw and write about it.
Write as many words as you can from the words "Thanksgiving".	Write as many words as you can that rhyme with "giving".	Do you like to eat turkey? Why or why not?	Tell about what your family is going to do over Thanksgiving break.	Describe how your family celebrates Thanksgiving.	Write about a time you shared something.	Have you ever eaten pumpkin pie? Did you like it?
