

JANUARY WRITING

calendar * task cards * paperless options

MADE BY: SADDLE UP FOR 2ND GRADE ©2017

CALENDAR PAGE >>> >>> >>> >>> >>> >>>

My students keep a writer's notebook in a three ring binder. Students can use this page to keep track of what writing prompts they have already completed. Once they have written about a topic, have them color in the object in that square.

- ## IDEAS FOR USE:
- writing center
 - early finisher work
 - morning work
 - homework

JANUARY WRITING PROMPTS

Color in the snowflake after you've written about that topic.

Tell about some things you like to do when it snows.	Write about a famous person you would like to meet.	Write as many words as you can from the phrase "Happy New Year".	Tell about an animal that you are afraid of.	Write 4 facts about polar bears.	List 5 things you know about Martin Luther King Jr.	Write a story about a snowball fight.
January 18th is Martin Luther King Jr Day. Why is he important.	What do you plan to do after school today?	List as many words as you can that rhyme with sled.	Write a thank you letter to Santa for the gifts you received from him.	What would happen if it never rained.	Write a story about a lost mitten.	How do you load a snowman? Use transition words. (First, Next, Then, Last)
Pretend you met Frosty the Snowman. What would you do?	Use your 5 senses to write about snow. (I see, I smell, I feel, I hear, I taste)	Tell me about a look character that you would like to meet.	Use adjectives to describe hot chocolate.	What clothes do you need for winter? Write about what you would wear outside.	Make a list of words that describe winter.	Write a goal you have for the New Year. How will you meet your goal?
What movie do you watch over and over? Why?	Write a story about sledding down a hill.	Pretend you found a magic snowflake. What would happen?	Do you you like hot chocolate? Why or why not?	Write 3 things you can do in the winter.	How do you melt hot chocolate? Use transition words. (First, Next, Then, Last)	Have you ever been ice skating? Yes or no?
